Warehouse Manager Provides Thirty-Five Years of Day-In and Day-Out Commitment

One of the very first employees to join Metro Wire and Cable, Detroit Warehouse Manager Bryan Beal celebrated thirty-five years of dedication and service in April. As a stocking distributor of electrical wire and cable, Beal takes pride in managing the team that provides many value added services and product enhancements, as well as managing the safe delivery to the end user or installer.

Employees commemorated the many accomplishments of Beal in May with a recognition dinner and reception on his behalf. Donald D. Ezop, President and CEO, stated at the dinner that thanks to Beal's attention to detail, Metro Wire has grown in-part to become the company it is today. "Many things have changed in Metro's thirty five years. Bryan's commitment and dedication has been unwavering. Bryan is the first set of eyes to see all material coming into our facility and ensures its safe delivery when leaving our facility."
